Four years ago, you honored me with your trust and support by electing me to the City Council with the greatest number of votes of any candidate. I hope you will allow me to continue to work on your behalf.

I want to ensure that we continue to respond to the changing world around us while keeping Scottsdale special. I apply the vision, expertise, and leadership skills I gained throughout my volunteer and business career to maintain and encourage civility, understand different points of view, and find solutions.

My first priority continues to be the financial strength of our City. A strong economy keeps our sales tax and property tax among the lowest in the region, while helping to pay for the high-quality services that we all enjoy.

Specifically, I have worked to:

- Create conditions that encourage private investment, spur business development, and stimulate job creation. Today, over half a billion dollars in private investment is being made in Southern Scottsdale.
- Make fiscally responsible investments that improve our quality of life. We have set aside money each year to maintain our infrastructure.
- Control costs to keep government small, keep tax rates low and ensure that more of our tax dollars go to providing quality services to citizens. City government is smaller and taxes are flat.
- Improve our transportation system to serve our city and encourage Valley residents to work, shop and play in Scottsdale. We are updating our transportation plan to improve our bus service today and to provide better connections and improved service in the future.

Scottsdale is a very special place. It is our home. We must prepare for the future while protecting and preserving the best from our past. I ask for your support and your vote.

I am proud to have been born and raised in Scottsdale. My father moved to Scottsdale in 1947 and lived in an adobe house on Scottsdale Road. Since then, my family has been a part of Scottsdale's unique and treasured history. I have been married to Cheralee for 23 years and our 3 children attended Scottsdale Public Schools. We are very committed to our community and its' future.

Scottsdale is a great place to live and work. We are a world-class city with premier tourist attractions and events, high quality businesses in diverse industries and an exceptional quality of life for our residents. Our city is also known for its unparalleled natural beauty and its thoughtful, consistent city leadership.

These things don't happen by accident. We have elected leaders who have seen what this community could become and then provided the leadership to make our collective vision become a reality. I will continue these fine qualities that have become hallmarks for Scottsdale. As our City matures and becomes far less dependent on growth, significant challenges face our community.

Perhaps our biggest challenge is to continue growing diverse industries while we strive to maintain the southwest character and open spaces of Scottsdale. Industries like technology and health care present great opportunities for job creation and economic growth. I will continue to provide leadership that acknowledges the importance of good jobs, improvement to our quality of life and the vision to advance Scottsdale's future.

If elected, I will focus on economic development, private-sector job creation, a balanced budget and revitalization of the mature areas of our city. I truly believe that Scottsdale's best days are ahead of us. I respectfully and humbly ask for your vote.

I live in Scottsdale and run my business here. There isn't any place on earth as special as our city. That is why I am running. I don't belong to any of the various factions that seem to always be bickering and fighting for control. I'm an outsider and I'm running to ensure that someone on the City Council is putting Scottsdale first.

I hope you will visit my website at AuerbachForCityCouncil.com to read more about me and my proposals, but I want to give you some of the highlights here.

*I want to encourage high-tech, high-wage employers to come to Scottsdale.

*I want to see McDowell Road redeveloped and turned into a proper showcase for our city.

*I oppose sweetheart deals and want to work with our Mayor and the City Council to level the playing field and bring the right kind of economic growth to Scottsdale.

*I want to keep our city safe by providing our public safety officers and first responders with the equipment and training they need and a salary to ensure that we're being taken care of by the best people.

While some of my opponents seem to be more concerned with serving the unions, my concern is for the rank and file members and the taxpayers who pay their salaries.

I am also concerned about our quality of life. Our way of life needs to be well-managed and defended. Housing growth needs to be balanced and must respect the nature of the communities in which the growth is occurring.

Most of all, we need to treat each other with respect and put what is best for our city ahead of personal or political agendas. I ASK FOR YOUR VOTE, I promise to serve honorably, and to always have an open door. Thank you!

It's time to put "We the PEOPLE" back into our City government. I am the best person to do that. I have spent thousands of hours working with you, your neighbors and neighborhoods through my position as the Executive Director of POSA Outreach helping thousands of families and children. I know the needs.

The first and foremost issue is that City government needs to listen to the voice of "We the People" and take action that reflects that voice. Time and time again we have seen and heard those voices ignored at City Hall.

"We the People," want our City returned to a strong fully staffed and fully funded Public Safety program to protect our residents, businesses and visitors.

"We the People," want our City to protect our mature neighborhoods from infill height and density, and protect and respect our history and our quality of life.

"We the People," want our City to work on the issues of our aging residents and young families, on quality housing, quality education and non-fixed transportation options.

"We the People," want our City to protect our McDowell Sonoran Preserve from all incursions.

My participation in our community includes:

- Scottsdale Leadership Class 25
- 2014 MLK Diversity Champion COS
- 2009 Frances Young Community Hero Merit Award
- Partners for Paiute Board
- Treasurer, Protect and Preserve Committee
- Founder, Scottsdale Kachina Lion's Club
- Development Committee – SPD Gang Out program
- Past President, Scottsdale Exchange Club
- President, Exchange Clubs Foundation (Child Abuse Prevention)
- Scottsdale Airpark Committee
- Lead singer, Denim and Diamonds band at Cavalliere's Reata Pass Western Bar and Restaurant

If you believe that it is time to bring back "We the People" to your City Council, then please vote for me, Cindy Hill.....Because Your Priorities Matter.

CANDIDATE FOR COUNCIL

Name: Kathy Littlefield
Age: 65
Education: B.A. in Business Education from Arizona State University
Occupation: Part Owner and Treasurer of NetXpert Systems, Inc.
Website: www.kathylittlefield.com
E-mail: kathy@kathylittlefield.com

I am a Scottsdale native and have been a resident activist in Scottsdale for many years. My goals for Council will be:

- approving conservative fiscal policies
- promoting tourism and small business
- protecting your rights as a Scottsdale resident
- defending Scottsdale's special character from harmful development, and above all,
- focusing on public safety to protect neighborhoods and keep you safe.

Because I am a fiscal conservative in deed as well as in word, I have fought to keep our taxes low. Last year I formed and chaired the Keep Scottsdale Special PAC to defeat the third-of-a-billion-dollar city property tax increase. When the bonds were rejected by voters in every precinct in Scottsdale by an overall ratio of 60/40, people saw I could make a difference in city government and encouraged me to run as the residents' voice on city council.

I support tourism and small business. I will work to attract new businesses and events to Scottsdale. I support the expansion of WestWorld, the Museum of the West, and completion of our beautiful McDowell-Sonoran Preserve. These amenities enhance our Western character and strengthen Scottsdale's tourism industry.

I support neighborhoods. I will stand with residents on issues of vital concern to their quality of life. Too often I have watched citizens ask Council to protect their neighborhoods from unwanted development, only to see their concerns go unanswered or even ignored! I will be your Councilmember who not only listens to you, but advocates for you at City Hall.

I support public safety. We must ensure all residents have a safe and secure environment in which to live, work and raise their families. I will vote to give police and firefighters the critical resources they need to keep you safe.

I would be honored to receive your vote in the upcoming city election.

CANDIDATE FOR COUNCIL

Name: Jennifer Petersen
Age: 53
Education: Southern Methodist University – Business/Marketing
Occupation: Former SUSD Governing Board member/president
Family: Husband-Ron, Children-Katie, Lara and Christopher
Website: www.electjenniferpetersen.com

I have lived in Scottsdale for 26 years. After moving here in 1988, I immediately fell in love with the energy, enthusiasm and eagerness of this city. My husband, Ron, and I have raised three children and put down roots in the community. Scottsdale is our home. We need positive leadership and that's why I'm running for the Scottsdale City Council this year. I want Scottsdale to be the best city that it can be, while maintaining our unique charm and character.

Scottsdale must change from a City of No to a City of Go. If you want to stand apart, you can't stand still. We need to attract and retain quality jobs by showing that we are open for and welcoming of business. We need to keep Scottsdale green by getting tourists and businesses to spend their money here.

These priorities reflect my record in public service. As president of the school board, we worked together to overcome a horrible recession and manage a budget of $175 million while maintaining an A-rated school district. We also cut administrative costs by 21 percent during my last four years on the board. I am the only non-incumbent candidate with experience as an elected official who had to make tough decisions and manage a multimillion-dollar budget as president of the Scottsdale Unified School Board.

As I consistently demonstrated during my time on the SUSD Board, I value your voice and want it to be heard. I am running to represent you. I look forward to seeing you on the campaign-trail and hearing from you.

Together we can build an even better Scottsdale.

Scottsdale is a beautiful place for us to live, for tourists to visit and for businesses to prosper. This didn't happen by accident; Scottsdale enjoys the same sunshine as neighboring cities, but we were blessed by financial strengths that came from a booming construction economy and substantial tax revenues from millions of tourists. We were also fortunate we had leaders of vision who foresaw possibilities of greatness. How do we insure our greatness into the future?

We need Councilmembers who understand finance and will spend our tax dollars wisely. For more than three years, I was Scottsdale's City Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer and that was after thirty years in senior financial management. The last fifteen years, I was Chief Financial Officer of multi-billion dollar government enterprises – The Tennessee Valley Authority and AMTRAK. I am the most qualified financial candidate in this race.

We need Councilmembers attuned to citizens' visions for improving the livability of Scottsdale. Since moving here in 1986, I have had a family footprint in south Scottsdale, McCormick Ranch and north Scottsdale. The entire city is our "front yard." It matters to me – as it does to you – what our community is and becomes.

We need Councilmembers who understand the drivers of economic development. My wife and I owned Scottsdale Airpark News for ten years, growing the business from a neighborhood newsletter to a 150-page magazine with monthly distribution of more than 30,000. I understand how to nurture and recruit both large and small businesses.

Citizens expect a more transparent, financially responsible Council pursuing citizens' visions and supporting economic development – especially tourism, the bedrock of our economy. A vote for me supports responsible, visionary leadership to insure Scottsdale continues as a beautiful place for us to live, for tourists to visit and for businesses to prosper.
