Notes:

On February 13, 1952, the Council adopted Ordinance No. 9, creating a Board of Plumbing Examiners in conjunction with their adoption of the Uniform Plumbing Code. The board is often referred to as the Plumbing Board. The first appointments were made on April 21, 1952. On May 12, 1953, the Council voted to change the membership from two to three members. After the July 19, 1977 appointments, there is no further mention of the Board of Plumbing Examiners or the Plumbing Board.

Associated Boards: Building Advisory Board of Appeals, Electrical Advisory Board
