

Announcing the Spring 2024 Schedule

The Spring 2024 Neighborhood College session is now open for registration. Unless otherwise noted, all classes are offered as an in-person option only. These classes are offered at no charge.

HOA/Condo Symposium

8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 27

Community Design Studio, 7506 E. Indian School Road.

This special day of learning is designed for those new to serving on their HOA or condominium community board. It would also be interesting for those interested in serving on the board or those needing a "refresher." Seating is limited. Lunch is provided. You must reserve your seat in advance, so we can get an accurate food count. Topics include:

- Amending and Enforcing Your CC&Rs
- Understanding Financial Obligations, Budgeting and Fraud Prevention
- Board Roles and Responsibilities

Instructors: attorneys and property managers from VF Law, Associated Asset Management, and the Mulcahy Law Firm.

HOA and Condo Committee Basics

1 to 3 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 6,

Community Design Studio, 7506 E. Indian School Road.

Committees can be a useful tool to help get things accomplished in your HOA/Condo. In this class, you will learn everything you need to know about HOA/condo committees, including, but not limited to, committee types, functions, responsibilities and legal requirements. Instructor: Beth Mulcahy, Mulcahy Law Firm.

Rentals, Animals & Disabilities - What You Need to Know

9:30 to 11 a.m. Monday, March 18,

Community Design Studio, 7506 E. Indian School Road.

This session is for all housing providers, tenants, applicants, social service agencies and advocates. Everyone is invited to learn more about their rights and responsibilities regarding Federal, State and local Fair Housing Laws. Certificates of attendance will be given at the end of the class. Instructor: Cheri Horbacz, Southwest Fair Housing Council.

HISTORY SERIES

The Great Desert Escape

1 to 3 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 21

Mustang Library Auditorium, 10101 N. 90th St.

80 years ago, the largest escape of prisoners of war in North America during World War II happened in Scottsdale. Join historian and author Keith Warren Lloyd as he explores the factors leading up to the escape, the escape itself and the aftermath. Instructor: Keith Warren Lloyd.

Treasures of Scottsdale:

The Extraordinary Ellis Family

6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 5,

Cattletrack Arts Compound, 6105 N. Cattletrack Dr.

For more than 70 years, the Cattle Track Arts Compound has been a hub of creativity and innovation in Scottsdale, its influence reaching around the globe and back again, and yet the site has remained off the radar of most residents and visitors. The family behind this one-of-a-kind home for the arts traces their Scottsdale roots back to just a few years after the founding of the State of Arizona. Their contributions to the community, state, and nation have been truly extraordinary! Those present at 6 p.m. will tour the gallery and workshop led by a Cattletrack Arts and Preservation volunteer. The presentation will begin at 6:30 p.m. Instructor: Bruce Wall, city of Scottsdale.

Murder in the First Degree: Two cases that shocked Scottsdale

1 to 3 p.m. Wednesday, March 13,
Mustang Library Auditorium, 10101 N. 90th St.

6-8 p.m. Monday, March 18,
Community Design Studio, 7506 E. Indian School Road.

Learn about two cases where the suspect planned and prepared for the murder of their victim – which made them first-degree murder cases. The stories include all the nuance and historical perspective that you’ve come to expect! The first happened in the 1960s and led to repercussions for all the convicted murderers in Arizona to follow. Instructor: Bruce Wall, city of Scottsdale.

The Fruit of the Poisonous Tree

1 to 3 p.m. Tuesday, March 19,
Holland Community Center, 34250 N. 60th Street,
Building B.

It began as an extramarital affair in the Bisbee/ Sierra Vista area of southern Arizona. It led to the murder of the wife’s husband in Scottsdale in 1976. During the investigation, the suspects made a huge mistake and were apprehended by Scottsdale’s finest. But no one could predict what happened at the trial! Instructor: Bruce Wall, city of Scottsdale.
